MENTOR- MENTEE GROUP

The institution has an active mentoring system in which each teacher is assigned a small group (up to 30 students) and the group is named as Mentor-Mentee. Mentoring is provided with an aim to foster student success and act as an integral part of the institutional environment. Educational, Personal, Psychological and Vocational guidance is provided as a part of the mentoring system with an aim to enhance academic and overall performance of the students.

MENTOR –MENTEE ACTIVITIES

- Admitted students are divided into the mentor-mentee groups at the start of the session.
- Provision of daily Mentor- Mentee interaction is there. In order to discuss any issues, seek guidance and gaining valuable insight from mentors the mentees can meet their mentors daily from 9:20 a.m. to 10:20 a.m. in the respective faculty rooms.
- Each Mentor is in touch with mentees.
- The Academic performance of the mentees is regularly monitored by the concerned mentors and need based special assistance is provided.
- In order to sort out personal issues and internal conflicts among the mentees the Mentors remain in touch with the mentees and handled the same very effectively and carefully.
