B.Ed. COLLEGE

A Report on Personal Counselling process followed on Academic Year-2022-2023

The educational institute no matter how senior or junior it might be just to be imparting knowledge alone. The over all development of the students which comes about by allowing each individual to achieve and perform to his best is what every college should aim for. Here it is the constant and continued interaction between the students and teachers that would bring about the most desirable results and over time too. D.P.R.P B.Ed. College, Gaya firmly believes in extending Personal Counselling to students whenever they are in need of.

The following students were noticed going through the problems mentioned below and proper counselling was provided to them to get rid of the problems.

Sl. No.	Name of the Student	Problem of the student
1.	VIKASH KUMAR SINGH	Lack of Communication
2.	CHANDAN KUMAR	Depression
3.	SAURAV RANJAN	Irregularity to the classes
4.	SUDHA KUMARI	Tension with Exams
5.	MUKESH KUMAR	Lack of Concentrate

1. VIKASH KUMAR SINGH was observed with fear of exams, which is quite and common problems with many students. The Class Mentor of him advised the students by extending Personal Counselling twice and provided him with some tips to come out of the problem. The following advises were given to the students:

1. Make sure you are understood
2. Develop your listening skills
3. Take time to respond.

2. CHANDAN KUMAR was found suffering from depression. Hence, his Class Mentor conducted counselling sessions to him thrice and advised him to practice the following tips:

1. Be Mindful
2. Exercise (Even for a Minute)
3. Learn more about stress relief.

3. SAURAV RANIAN was detected as an irregular student to the classes. Having realized that she was in need of counselling, the Class Mentor conducted a counselling session to her and explained the importance of education and scope of being successful in life with education.

4. SUDHA KUMARI was observed suffering from Exams Fear and tension. The Class Mentor extended his special counselling to her and provided her with some practice tips.

1. It would be advisable to be prepared by checking your syllabus thoroughly.
2. Relax yourself with some easy ways.
3. Time management is one of the major factors behind every success.

5. MUKESH KUMAR was found suffering from lack of concentration. Having realized her urgency to overcome the problem, a counselling session was conducted to her by the Class Mentor and advised her to practice the following tips to make her concentration better.

1. Train your Brain
2. Make time for exercise
3. Take Breaks and mix up your environment.
