Ragging is considered as a sadistic thrill, and it is a violation of Human Rights. Ragging is totally prohibited in Dashrath Prasad Ramnandan Pandey B. Ed. College, Aurangabad (Bihar), inside and / or outside the campus and anyone found guilty of ragging and / or abetting ragging whether actively or passively, or being a part of conspiracy to promote ragging, is liable to be punished in accordance with UGC Regulations 2009 as well as under the provisions of any penal law for the time being in force.

Relevant definitions as per the UGC Regulations

Clause 3

1. Misconduct of any student either in spoken or written form or any action that has the effect of harming others.
2. Indulging in undisciplined activities that cause physical or psychological harm or fear or apprehension
3. Asking others to do things that they normally will not do and causes a sense of shame or emotional embarrassment.
4. Any act that disrupts the others academic activity by any senior student
5. Financial extortion or forceful monetary burden on a fresher or any other student.
6. Any act of physical abuse including sexual, homosexual assaults, stripping of clothes, forcing lewd acts and gestures causing physical and mental torture.
7. Any act of abuse by spoken words, emails, posts, public insults to derive sadistic pleasure.
8. Any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of any student with or without an intent to derive sadistic pleasure or priority over others.

Ragging, as defined by the Honourable Supreme Court of India in its landmark judgment in 2001, is as follows:

"Any disorderly conduct whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness any other student, indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in a fresher or a junior student or asking the students to do any act or perform something which such student will not in the ordinary course and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of a fresher or a junior student.”

Objectives of the Anti-ragging Policy:

The main objectives of the said Policy are as follows:

- To prohibit any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student.
- To keep a constant cycle and vigilance over ragging so as to prevent its occurrence.
- To address any ragging issues immediately and take action as advised by the committee.
- To bring awareness among the students about the ill effects of ragging, its impact on human life, and the consequences of involvement in the act of ragging.
- To receive the complaints and resolve them through the committee.
- To promptly and stringently deal with the incidents of ragging brought to our notice.
- To generate an atmosphere of discipline by sending a clear message that no act of ragging shall be tolerated and any act of ragging shall not go unnoticed and unpunished.
- To uphold the human dignity.

Measures to curb the incidences of Ragging

The College administration shall constitute an Anti-Ragging Committee, comprising of the Principal of the College and senior faculty members and a student's representative.

In addition, anti-ragging squads would be constituted and they would visit the college premises very often and keep a vigil on the activities in the campus.

Procedure and Duties of the committee:

Any case related to ragging reported by a student to the Anti Ragging Committee, will be subject to an enquiry where cross examination will be held to know the exact situation whereby the complainant and the accused will be given an opportunity of being heard. The committee will review the facts and figures relevant to the case and will give its decision within 7 days from the date of complaint.

The procedure shall be as under:

1. A written complaint shall be submitted to the Anti-Ragging Committee, describing the ragging instance completely with date, time and place of happening.
2. The complaint should contain the identity of the complainant and the identity of the alleged.
3. The complainant should submit the complaint in person to any of the Anti-Ragging Committee members.
4. The confidentiality of the complainant and any other applicable issues shall be maintained.
5. The committee shall examine in depth the issues involved and submit a report to the competent authority for taking an appropriate action.

Punishment to those found guilty:

Any student or group of students found guilty of ragging in the campus or even outside the campus shall be liable to punishment. Every single incident of ragging, a FIR shall be lodged without exception by the college authorities with the local police. In addition, one or any combination of the following punishments can be awarded:

- I. Debarring from appearing in any sessional test/ University Examination.
- II. Suspension from attending classes and academic privileges.
- III. Withdrawing scholarships and other benefits.
- IV. Suspension from the college.
- V. Cancellation of the admission.
- VI. Withholding the results. Debarring from representing the institution in any regional, national or international meet, tournament, youth festival, etc.
- VII. Suspension / expulsion from the hostel.
- VIII. Rustication from the institution for a period ranging from 1 to 4 semesters.
- IX. Expulsion from the institution and consequent debarring from admission to any other institution.
- X. Collective punishment: When the persons committing or abetting the crime of ragging are not identified, the institution shall resort to collective punishment as a deterrent to ensure community pressure on the potential raggers

Instructions To Freshers

1. You do not have to submit to ragging in any form.

2. You do not have to compromise with your dignity and self-respect
3. You can report incidents of ragging to the authorities concerned.
4. You can contact any member of the Anti Ragging Squad / Anti Ragging Committee of the College, or the Principal.
5. The college is obliged to permit the use of communication facilities (Landline and Mobile phones) for seeking help.
6. If you are not satisfied with the enquiry conducted by the College, you can lodge a First Information Report (FIR) with the local Police, and can complain with the civil authorities also.
7. The college is in any case required to file FIR if your parents or you are not satisfied with the action taken against those who 'ragged' you.
8. Your complaint can be oral or written, and would be treated by the authorities in strict confidence.
